PRIME MINISTER – PREMIER MINISTRE

November 5, 1963

Dear Mr. Crawley:

It is with great pleasure that I salute you and your colleagues on a quarter-century of distinguished accomplishment in the making of motion pictures.

The proud place which you have won for your organization and for Canada in the world of sponsored film production is, I know, a direct consequence of the foresight, determination, and high creative standards that have guided your efforts.

May I extend to you my warmest congratulations on having reached this significant milestone, and to express the confident hope that your work in the years ahead will continue to do honour to an important Canadian industry whose development you have helped pioneer and lead.

Sincerely,

Lester B Pearson

Dear Mr. Crawley:-

Please accept my heartiest congratulations on 25 years of successful effort in the film industry.

During the past quarter of a century you have brought honour and distinction to Canada as well as to your firm. From personal experience I know of the fine job you have done in interpreting to the world various aspects of Canadian life.

May I express the hope that you will have many more years in which to continue this fine service to the people of Canada.

Dear Mr. Crawley:

Canada is rich in its heritage of pioneers and pioneering efforts. "Budge" and Judy Crawley are recognized, and in the years to come will be even better known, as the pioneers of the Canadian Film Industry. As you look back over the 25 years since Crawley Films first began operations in the attic of your father's home, you can legitimately take much pride and satisfaction in your accomplishment.

Your contribution in helping Canada understand itself - yes, and in helping the world better understand Canada, and Canada the world - has been significant. In just three years, we will be celebrating our nation's centennial. The work and service of Crawley Films Limited have not only made a great contribution towards our maturing nation but is actually part of our national heritage.

There will be even a greater challenge in the future than there has been in the past. May the next 25 years of Crawley Films be equally as successful as the last.

My best wishes to your Company, to your staff, and particularly to you and Mrs. Crawley.

Sincerely,

CHARLOTTE WHITTON C.B.E.
MAYOR

November 19, 1963

In the unending interplay of the Canadian political scene, Ottawa lost the National Film Board to Montreal and Dorval. But the Capital did keep Crawley Films and, thereby, a window, as it were, upon the world, through which others might not only look and learn of the life of Canada, but, through whose energy and enterprise, the light of imagination and a lively stimulus imparted by truly Canadian films of enriching excellence portrayed us to the world.

For if there be one characteristic, applicable above all others to Crawley Films, it is this essential Canadianism. Crawley Films, like the traditional shoe lace of so many self-made Canadians and their enterprises "started on a shoe string" or, rather, one spool of film. And "Budge" Crawley and his wife "Judy" Sparks are themselves as Canadian as the white pine of The Ottawa. Mrs. Crawley, of the very strain and name of "Old Nick" himself, Nicholas Sparks, who, as the first land owner, actually dwelling on his land, must be regarded, with Lord Dalhousie and Colonel By, as the founders of the village, destined to become the National Capital.

And the Crawley's first film could not have been more Canadian -- woods ablaze with the autumn glory of our maples, even as their leaves are falling, before winter's oncoming, affording cover against the winter's snow to the flowers of spring -- the hepaticas and the arbutus of our own and the tall, crisp tulips we have made our own.

All of these, our national heritage, presentations of our people, our science, industry, trade, commerce, culture and all the building of a young nation on its way, Crawley Films have caught and kept, proof of the present into an enlarging future.

Congratulations to you from your own City and good wishes for still widening vistas and satisfaction in the years ahead.

Dear Mr. Fraser:

It is my very real pleasure to extend congratulations and best wishes to Crawley Films Limited on the completion of twenty-five years of successful operation. To become Canada's largest producer of sponsored films, and, in the process, to attain international recognition and awards, are achievements of which President F.R. Crawley can be justly proud.

The progress recorded by the Company reflects credit on the Officers and, because of its area of operation, adds lustre to the name of Canada.

Dear Mr. Crawley:

As President of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association I extend to you warmest congratulations on the occasion of the twenty-fifth birthday of Crawley Films Limited.

From the smallest of beginnings, Crawley Films has risen in the past quarter of a century to occupy a unique place in the developing Canadian film industry. By its enterprise, imagination and the quality of its products it has played an outstanding role in the advancement of film making in Canada and has merited the many honours it has won at home and abroad.

It is my hope that your Company's achievements in the next twenty-five years will be equally striking.

Dear Mr. Crawley:-

On the occasion of the 25th anniversary of the founding of your company, may I extend congratulations on the splendid work you have done in conveying to Canadians, and to people outside Canada, information about our country.

Because of geography and our varied cultural backgrounds, the matter of communications is particularly vital to Canada. You and your associates have not only performed a monumental task in terms of volume output, but you have also provided leadership in techniques.

Best wishes for your continued success in the years ahead.

DEPUTY MINISTER OF TRADE AND COMMERCE
CANADA

OTTAWA, October 8, 1963.

Dear Mr. Fraser,-

I am happy indeed to send this message to Crawley Films Limited, on the occasion of its 25th Anniversary of incorporation:

In 25 years, Crawley Films has produced more than 25 million feet of motion picture film. Others have undoubtedly equalled or exceeded this output. What makes the Crawley achievement remarkable is that every frame of every film has been a double exposure. The photographic image has portrayed life in Canada with professional brilliance. But on the same screen a second latent image has come through with equal force -- the deft touch, the sensitivity and the integrity of "Budge" Crawley and his team. This is why the company's Silver Anniversary means something more than the recollection of 25 years in business. It is a timely reminder of the fact that Crawley films have achieved a memorable marriage of visual artistry and intrinsic honesty on movie screens around the world.

Dear Mr. Crawley:

I am glad to send along to you as President of Crawley Films Limited, this warm greeting on the occasion of the 25th Anniversary of Crawley Films Limited. No one, I am sure, knows more than you do how difficult it is to develop an independent film industry in Canada, living as we do beside so highly developed an industry in the United States. You and your associates and staff are to be warmly commended on the many distinguished achievements of Crawley Films during its first quarter century and we shall look forward to continued lively growth in the years ahead. You will, I am sure, realize that as Chairman of the Board of Broadcast Governors, which is very much concerned to see a lively presentation of Canadian produced programs on television screens, not only in Canada but in all parts of the world, I have a special interest in the success of Canadian ventures like your own.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Budge:

Congratulations! I know how you must feel about the approaching 25th Anniversary of Crawley Films Limited because we at the CBC celebrated ours in 1961 and marked ten years of television only last year.

Of course, you and those who have worked with you to build a Canadian film industry over the years were in business long before the CBC got into television. We were fortunate that the industry you have done so much to foster was there to meet the needs of Canada's developing television industry. The TV camera is still limited in terms of flexibility so the answer to many of today's problems of providing complete television service is the same as it was a decade ago. Film continues to make television flexible.

Crawley Films Limited has been prominent as a producer of outstanding Canadian TV series. It is significant that some of these have reached other countries bearing the inimitable stamp that has brought you so many well-deserved film awards.

Please convey the Corporation's very best wishes to all your staff, and good luck in the next twenty-five.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Budge:

I could not let the 25th Anniversary of Crawley Films pass without adding my good wishes to the multitude that will be coming your way.

It seems hardly believable that 25 years have passed since you started in the motion picture business. However, looking back, you and I have been associated in one way or another for a long time too. There have been times when you were my customer, my competitor, my associate, my supplier - but always my friend.

I well remember the excellent work you did when we were on the A.M.P.P.L.C. committee studying Customs and Excise and there have been many, many other times when you have given unstintingly of your time and efforts to benefit the industry as a whole.

Again, Budge, my sincere congratulations on your accomplishments in the past 25 years and my very best wishes for your success in the next 25 years. I have every hope that, in the coming years, CTV Television Network and Crawley Films will be working together to bring better Canadian television to Canadians.

Kindest personal regards.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Mr. Crawley,

Please accept the congratulations and best wishes of the Canadian Association of Broadcasters on the attainment of your 25th Anniversary.

This is a remarkable achievement made all the more noteworthy because so few Canadian film makers manage to reach this milestone in such an admittedly uncertain profession.

For you there must be the added gratification which comes from knowing that so many of your productions have won both public and critical acclaim. I know, too, that there is real satisfaction in the fact that so many of these films, dealing with Canadian subjects, have made a worthwhile contribution to our growing national consciousness.

You are to be commended for your continuing efforts to create Canadian films of high quality on so many subjects of lasting importance. It is good to know that you have been able to accomplish this as a private business venture, and without receiving any special consideration.

The hundreds of private broadcasters represented by the CAB have enjoyed a long and pleasant relationship with you and your Company. They join me in forecasting, confidently, that this relationship will survive and be strengthened still further in the years ahead.

Kindest personal regards,

I take great pleasure in congratulating you and Crawley Films Limited on their 25th Anniversary in 1964. The Board values very highly the close association which has always existed between our two organizations which, in fact, were both created in the same year.

We have seen the development of your company from the early days when you and Judy were the only production staff to its present position as the largest private film production organization in Canada. It is also a matter of considerable satisfaction to us that a number of your films have been distributed through the Board to audiences in Canada and abroad.

May I express the hope that on our 25th anniversaries we still have many years of service to Canada ahead of us.

Cher Monsieur Crawley,

Je désire vous offrir mes félicitations les plus chaleureuses à l'occasion de votre 25e anniversaire comme producteur de films. La commémoration d'un tel anniversaire est un évènement d'importance dans les annales de la jeune industrie cinématographique canadienne. L'esprit d'initiative et d'imagination que vous avez toujours manifesté s'est reflété dans les 1,400 films que vous avez produits. Tous ces films empreints de votre personnalité ont joué un rôle important au Canada en accomplissant la tâche à laquelle ils étaient destinés. Les 35 récompenses que vous avez méritées au Palmarès du Film Canadien, ajoutées à celles obtenues dans des compétitions internationales, sont venu confirmer les hautes qualités et la compétence que vous avez apportées à la production de vos films.

Depuis 1935, l'Institut Canadien du Film s'est efforcé de promouvoir l'appréciation et l'utilisation des films dans le domaine de la culture, de l'enseignement et de la science et à cette fin, a mis sur pied une cinémathèque nationale qui comprend plus de 7,500 titres. Dans cette tâche gigantesque, nous de l'Institut, avons toujours pu compter, non seulement sur votre encouragement sympathique et votre aide efficace, mais sur celui de Judy, de Graeme Fraser et de tout votre personnel qualifié. Votre contribution vers une meilleure utilisation du film pour l'enseignement, l'industrie et la télévision au cours du dernier quart de siècle, fait de cet anniversaire un évènement capital que l'on se doit de célébrer.

Je veux donc m'y associer et vous apporter le témoignage de ma plus haute appréciation.

Bien à vous,

le président
